SOCIETY EDITOR.

Christmas festivities are a matter of social history, the pleasure loving now turning their thoughts to the New Year. The season will be inaugurated with a brilliant affair at the Country club, a ball masque on Friday evening. In addition to all the merriment a masquerade occasion, there will be special cause for jollity in the "stunts" arranged for the mid-night hour.

January will unquestionably be the gayest month of the year. There are any number of functions on the calendar, not the least important of which will be the tea in the new Trinity Cathedral House the first Friday of the New Year. Mrs. C. E. Ainsworth of the Senior Guild and Mrs. Ernest Lewis of the Junior Guild will pour. The affair will be in the nature of a shower for the Guild. Kitchen dishes, cooking utensils and linens have been suggested as acceptable gifts.

Plans are about completed by the Board of Visitors of St. Luke's Home for the second annual charity ball to be given on "Twelfth Night," the 6th of January, at the Woman's club. In all large cities the Charity Ball is looked forward to as the most important event of the season. It is planned to make this ball no exception. The proceeds will be devoted to St. Luke's Home for the treatment of tuberculosis. There is no more deserving institution in the state than this hospital, which is in no sense sectarian and is open to every creed seeking the help of a sanitarium and the comforts of a home.

Generous sums are contributed by friends in the east, but to carry on the work at St. Luke's it is necessary to depend upon voluntary contributions and the support of the people of Phoenix. Invitations will be issued in a few days and the members of the board hope to have the responses which were so promptly and generously given last year.

Those who attended the affair are eagerly anticipating the second annual dance, which will be equally attractive. A buffet supper will be one of the features of the event and is included in the ticket purchase for the dance. Additional tickets may be secured from Mrs. Gordon Tweed.

Mrs. Richard Saille of Mount Vernon, Indiana, is a recent arrival, who will winter here, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Carson of the Westminster apartments.

Mrs. Evans-Darby presided over a Christmas dinner of eight covers at her home on North Central avenue. The table's centerpiece was a miniature tree and suspended over the entire table were innumerable tiny holiday bells.

The dance at the Country club was

Save Your Hair! Make it Soft Fluffy, Lustrous and Beautiful

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

and scraggy. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.
